London, December 4.

'HAVING in former Courants 'inſerted ſuch Advices as the 'Dutch Prints and Letters of the '4 laſt Mails afford, concerning 'the Affairs of the Court of 'Rome; We now, purſuant to the Method of this 'Paper, give the Accounts from Rome contain'd 'in the two laſt Paris Gazettes, which came in thoſe 'Mails.

From the Paris Gazette dated Nov. 24.

Rome, Oct. 27. The Regiment of Foot of the Count de San Martino, appear'd the 21ſt Inſtant in the great Court of the Palace of Montecavallo, and there perform'd their Exerciſe: Which done, the Officers went and kiſs'd the Pope's Feet. The 25th that Regiment march'd for Ferrara, carying with them a conſiderable Sum for paying the Troops, and for other neceſſary Expences. Several Congregations have ſince been held on military Affairs, on the Arrival of divers Couriers ſent to give an Account of the Ravages of the Imperialiſts in the Ferrareze. They have committed all ſorts of Cruelties, without ſparing the Churches and other ſacred Places. The 24th the Marquis de Prie, the Emperor's Plenipotentiary, arriv'd here; having been met without the City by the Count de Caunitz Auditor of the Rota, with ſeveral Coaches and Six Horſes of Perſons in the Intereſt of the Houſe of Auſtria. He has ſince notified his Arrival to the Pope, as alſo to Cardinal Paulucci Secretary of State, but without declaring what Caracter he will take. He has not yet had Audience of his Holineſs: But the Palace of Gaetano being fitted up for him, 'tis believ'd he deſigns to make ſome ſtay in this City. Cardinal Grimani has ſent a Reply to the Letter which Cardinal Capegna wrote to him in Anſwer to that he formerly wrote to the Heads of the 3 Claſſes of Cardinals, in which he deſires them to interpoſe their good Offices for juſtifying his Behaviour towards the Pope. He does not inſiſt upon that Point, but declares that he will always preſerve a great Reſpect for the Holy See; But that in the mean time he cannot excuſe himſelf from executing punctually the Emperour's Orders. The Prince de Roſſano eldeſt Son of the P. de Borgheſe, has treated magnificently at his Villa, the Marſhal de Theſſe Ambaſſador extraordinary of France, with the Cardinals del Giudice and de la Tremoille, the Marquis de Monteleone and other Perſons of Quality. We have an Account by a Courier from Avignon, that the Troops which have been levied in that Country, were gone from the Coaſts of Provence; ſo that we ſoon expect them at Civita-Vecchia, where they are to land. The Cardinals of the Holy Office, have according to Cuſtom, celebrated a ſolemn Service in the Church of the Dominicans della Minerva for Cardinal Morigia; by whoſe Decaſe an 8th Seat is vacant in the ſacred College, as is alſo the Biſhoprick of Pavia and ſome Abbeys.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 1.

Rome, Nov. 3. The 30th of laſt Month the Regiment of Ruſpoli march'd out from hence for Ferrara, whither other Troops are ſent as faſt as they arrive. The Neceſſity of providing for Defence becomes every Day more urgent, by the Hoſtilities which the Germans continue to exerciſe in the Eccleſiaſtical State; and ſince 'twas known that they made 1000 or 1200 Soldiers of the Garriſon of Bondeno Priſoners of War. We have Advice likewiſe, that from the Kingdom of Naples Collonel Pate with ſome Troops had appear'd on the Frontier of the Eccleſiaſtical State; and that two Neapolitan Galliots having taken 4 Barks belonging to the Pope's Subjects, they were declar'd lawful Prize. Theſe are the Preliminaries of the Negociation of the Marquis de Prie, who has not yet had Audience of the Pope; but he has diſpatch'd a Courier to Vienna for new Inſtructions. The Senator Carovelli of Milan, is come hither to aſſiſt him with his Counſels, and has brought with him ſeveral Memoirs to prove the Rights of the Emperour, and to juſtify the Edicts publiſh'd at Milan and Naples relating to the Sequeſtration of Eccleſiaſtical Revenues, and to evince the Nullity of the Cenſures publiſh'd in divers places againſt thoſe who oppoſe that Sequeſtration. 'Tis rumour'd likewiſe, that the Officers of the Imperaliſts have demanded of the City of Bologna 30000 Piſtoles, Winter-Quarters, Subſiſtence for their Troops, and Paſſage to Rome. The Pope notwithſtanding all the Diſturbance given him by ſuch ill News, has not abſented himſelf from any of the ſolemn Devotions of this Week. To Day he held a Congregation, in which it was reſolv'd to reinforce the Garriſon of Civita Vecchia, on Advice that the Engliſh and Dutch have ſome Deſign to poſſeſs themſelves of it: But we learnt, almoſt at the ſame time, that their Fleet is ſail'd for the Streights. They write from Benevento, that the Officers of the Archduke had us'd great Threats to Cardinal Urſino Archbiſhop of Benevento, in order to oblige him to ſequeſter the Eccleſiaſtical Revenues of his Dioceſs; and that he not only refus'd it, but declar'd, that he would fulminate the Cenſures of the Church againſt thoſe who ſhould execute the Orders which might be given on that Subject.

Dartmouth, Nov. 30. Yeſterday put in here 4 light Dutch Doggers bound to France, the Friendly Adventure of Lieth in Ballaſt from Oſtend for St. Sebaſtian. This Day came in the Speedwell, William Traver Maſter, the John, Robert Reed Maſter, and the Betty, Thomas Swan, all 3 laden with Tobacco (being of and for Lyme) from Virginia. They parted from 28 Sail 9 Days ago under Convoy of the Briſtol, being bound to Briſtol. This Day they parted from the reſt of that Fleet being 70 others under Convoy of the Guernzey, Oxford and Burlington, which are bound for London; They have been 8 Weeks in their Paſſage home.

True Spectacles and Reading-Glaſſes made to the greateſt Perfection, by the uſe of which young Perſons may preſerve their Sight to the greateſt Age, and which from the Criſtial Clearneſs of the Glaſs and Truth of the Work ſupply the want of Natural ſtrength, preſerve and to aſſiſt the weakeſt Eyes ſo much as to render the Perſon capable of doing the fineſt of Work, and Reading the ſmalleſt Print. It is to be obſerv'd that a weak Sight ſuffers more in one year without them it will in 4 with the uſe of theſe Spectacles, they being ground on true Braſs Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common ſort of Spectacles being ground on falſe Iron Tools, and made of a darkiſh or elſe of green Glaſs, are ſo far from preſerving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Teleſcopes made to ſo great a perfection that a ſmall one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, diſcover things at the remoteſt diſtance, and make them appear as near as moſt of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the aſſiſtance of which ſmall Teleſcope you may tell what a Clock it is by ſuch a Dial as Bow or St. James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles diſtance proportionable, it being the pleaſanteſt and uſefulleſt Inſtrument of this kind, and ſo eſteem'd by Gentlemen that ſome have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another. Theſe with all ſorts of Microſcopes of the neweſt and beſt Improvement, Proſpective-Glaſſes and other Curioſities, are made and ſold by G. Willdey and T. Brandreth at the Archimedes and Globe in Ludgate-ſtreet, the corner next St. Pauls.
